

Bookreview of "The Elephantman!" - In English!

Intro: Letter from Smirre Kirax about the story!

Hello!

I have read the book "The Elephantman" written of Tim Vicary, that book is about a man with the name Joseph Merrick in London in the 1890,s. He was ill and he's skeleton grew and gave him a horrible looking and lots of peoples laughed at him and called him "The Elephantman." He was prisoner to a man liked to show him that people would have fun at him. The story is true.

One day a doctor at London hospital with name Fredrick Treves found him and rescued him from the suffer and wrote about Joseph Merrick in London Times. Peoples saw the poor man and gave lots of money to help him to a home in London hospital. One summer take him out to countryside there he lived lucky and be friends with lots of birds and he like the flowers and like trees.

The queen Alexandra visited him and many wonderful women visited him at the hospital and Joseph Merrick was lucky to have lot of friends.

He was taken with to the theatre and Joseph doesn't understand that was fiction. He was angry at the bad guy with a knife in the show and Joseph was just like a child in much.

The story ended tragic when his heavy head falls of the pillow when he slept and broke his neck and he died quickly.

The story touched me deeply and I was sad of that.

The Questions!

1: The Elephantman.

2: Tim Vicary

3: Joseph Merick is the Elephantman and he was a poor man but was lucky to have help from Fredrick Treves and the Queen Alexandra. Look my letter in front of these document.

4: The plot is described in my letter in front of the document.

5: When Joseph Merick is at countryside and I think he is was happy there.

6: The book was good first for that is a true story and I feel deep empathy with Joseph Merick and the English in book is on a level I can understand. I'm better on English now than I was before for I use more FurAffinity and Second Life more there I were interactive with American furies and have distance to SveaFur and SpChan if is Swedish forums and the forums have lots of trolls and I don't like bullying and trolls. I will do furry much better in my life than fighting with trolls on Internet.

7: That negative in the book was Joseph Merick died tragic in end. I hope on a lucky ending and example he was cured from his disease and find a lucky life with a woman and own children.

8: I can recommend the book to adult peoples, not for childrens or teenagers. The book is good for the story is true and give deep feelings of empathy for Joseph Merick!
